

Praise for True Crime Online

“True Crime Online gives real examples of internet crime from the investigation by law enforcement authorities through to the court deposition. A useful tool for students and practitioners investigating these crimes.”

—Dr. Henry C. Lee, CT Forensic Science Laboratory, Meriden, CT

“This book is yet another wake-up call of the need for greater vigilance and enforcement in cyberspace.”

—Bennet Kelley, founder, Internet Law Center

“J. A. Hitchcock is a pioneer in bringing awareness about the new cybercrime threats. True Crime Online is a must read for both parents and their children.”

—Jim Christy, special agent (Ret.)

“J. A. Hitchcock helped pass cyberstalking/harassment laws in numerous U.S. states and other countries. She’s your internet hero—read her fine book and protect yourself!”

—Skip Press, author, The Complete Idiot’s Guide to Making Money with Craigslist

“Frightening, eye-opening ... a must-read for parents of children innocently surfing the net and for anyone considering an online date.”

—Kate Flora, author, Finding Amy

“Riveting and frightening ... a powerful reminder that the online world is a dangerous place where predators are always on the hunt for prey—and any one of us could be a victim.”

—Tess Gerritsen, NYT bestselling author, Last to Die
